Disco Man

The Damned

Take my hand, discoman
Are you just a one night stand?
Have some fun, jump the gun
But what's left when it's all done

But who are you taking for a ride, discoman Better to run or else to hide discoman, discoman

Tall and neat, watch his feet Got the jist he's all complete Understand discomans Heading for the garbage can

Have you just crossed a bridge too far, discoman Jump in a cab and steal a car, the worse in the land Discoman, one night stand, discoman I can't understand, discoman

What are you doing Your life's in a ruin You're out of our head You oughta be dead

Down the stairs, no-one cares He who wuins is he who dares Rock n Roll, lose control Just forget you're on the dole

But who are you taking for a ride, discoman Better to run or else to hide, worst in the land Discoman, one night stand, discoman I can't understand, discoman

Are you ready (2x) For the discoman
