

Bastard Of Midnight

The Damnells

Hey
What's your number Chicago
What time is it in Japan
I've got something to offer
It's never been in demand

Yeah
I've got something to say to you that I know you'd rather ignore
I am the bastard of midnight
I might just sleep outside this door

Trouble keeps the bar lights on for the heartache
She said, "Sunset Boulevard'll take me home but I just wanna scream"

I
Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
I miss you tonight

Hey
What's your problem St. Peter
I've got my churches ingrained
Am I the groom of disaster
I've come here to entertain

But I've got nothing to sing to you that you haven't heard before
So I will sing you a million while you just walk out that door

Trouble keeps the bar lights on for the heartache
She says, "Sunset Boulevard'll take me home but I just wanna scream"

Oh
I
Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
I miss you

Tell me once
Tell me twice
Just what I wanna hear

Come around
Hold me close
We're getting out of here

Tell me once
Tell me twice
Tell me again
