

Fuck Them All

The Dangerous Summer

I watched the sky come down
It was a perfect day
We walked until our limbs would fall off
With diamonds in our hands
We fell into outer space
Then Jesus somehow got in the way

Fuck them all
They want me like a light bulb
Blurred out with the sun
Swept under the rug again
Am I insane?
I think this is my moment
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way

And in the perfect sound
I watched the silence break
We laughed until our heads would fall off
They still can't understand
Why we feel this way
Yeah they're still telling me I'm manic, I know

Fuck them all
They want me like a light bulb
Blurred out with the sun
Swept under the rug again
Am I insane?
I think this is my moment
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way

Fuck them all
They want me like a light bulb
Blurred out with the sun
Swept under the rug again
I understand now
That this is my moment
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way

Fuck them all
They want me like a light bulb
Blurred out with the sun
Swept under the rug again
I understand now
That this is my moment
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way
Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way

Yeah, nothing's standing here in my way
