

I'm Alive

The Dangerous Summer

I woke up on magnolia
Yeah, last night was a trip
I blow smoke from the windows in my car
This is my suburbia
This is why I live
I never thought that I'd take myself this far
But I guess that's nothing new

I drive down Mulholland
Like time doesn't exist
The sun paints the morning the bluest sky
I wanna go to the ocean
I wanna see where it ends
I wanna solve all the puzzles in my head
But I guess that's nothing new

Hallelujah
I'm alive
Hallelujah

Hallelujah
I'm alive
Hallelujah
