

When I Get Home

The Dangerous Summer

I'm coming out of line again
Remember where I was at seventeen
I miss the ordinary love
I miss the come ups and lucid dreams

I was open eyed and broke but I got by
Leaving the coast underneath the Maryland sky
That's home
That's still my home

And when I get home gonna call my friends
We'll party till the morning comes
I'll feel so lucky I could die
I'll feel so lucky I could have this in my life
It's what keeps me true

We never planned on all of this
Becoming echoes of another dream I had
And I can't rely on where I left
They closed those Recher Theatre doors where I found myself

Yeah, I was open eyed and broke but I got by
Leaving the coast underneath the Maryland sky
That's home
That's still my home

And when I get home gonna call my friends
We'll party till the morning comes
I'll feel so lucky I could die
I'll feel so lucky I could have this in my life
It's what keeps me true

We were banging on the walls again
We were taking on the world again
This place that gave me youth
I'm grounded, I'm grounding soon, yeah

I was open eyed and broke but I got by
Leaving the coast underneath the Maryland sky
That's home
That's still my home

And when I get home gonna call my friends
We'll party till the morning comes
I'll feel so lucky I could die
I'll feel so lucky I could have this in my life
It's what keeps me true

Yeah