

From a Window

The dB's

Wine in plastic cups
Listening to the wind
I will tell you everything
Where do I begin
Some would say we were friends
I won't make that mistake again
I won't make that mistake again

Careless at the start
Cautious at the end
Ives was on the stereo
I remember when
Some would say what happened
I won't make that mistake again
I won't make that mistake again
