The Delgados

Is it old?
Is it bold?
Is it necessarily gold?
Shelling out or shelling in
Selling matchsticks to my kin

I am nice
I have never listened but I am nice
Closed my ear
Only for the first time never in fear

Shopped it through
Walk round the front door back to the pool
We have stood over by the fountain
Makes me not good

Giving me back from the days when your dealings
Put me in track for your days like you said
Staying attached taking kind token feelings
Staying attached to my mind to my head

Find me here
We have never frozen out by the pier
When we go
We have never walked out never been cold

Never before
It's been so appealing
It's like I said
My token feelings
Said it before
Said it always
It's not what counts
It's what is wrong
Never before
So appealing
It's what it said
To my token feelings

Is it old?
Is it bold?
Is it necessarily gold?
Shelling out or shelling in
Selling matchsticks to my kin
