

Never Look at the Sun

The Delgados

If you dare
Look up and see what's there
Level your eyes with some surprise
At the truths realized

Now you care
And you will climb for air
With some relief
You've found your peace
Are you taking us there?

Some cold comfort is waiting somewhere

Stand out
Now we can see
We've been found out
How can this be?
We've been hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving

Cold out
Happy to be here
Without doubt
Too much to see here
We're hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving
It's not too late

Trust in us
If you can trust in us
Follow the lead
For hearts that bleed
We're a difficult breed

Once you're found
No longer gagged and bound
Whisper to me "I think I'm free"
And the world will turn round

In between us
There are colors
But they're hidden from view
In between us
There is silence
But it's breaking for you

Some cold comfort will tell us what's true

Stand out
Now we can see
We've been found out
How can this be?
We've been hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving

Cold out
Happy to be here

Without doubt
Too much to see here
We're hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving

Hold out
My own reflection
I've found out
Less than perfection
I'm been hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving

Cold out
Happy to be here
Without doubt
Too much to see here
I'm hoping and praying
There's one life worth saving
