

Please believe
If I can't win then I'll leave
And chaste I am
And no one knows where I stand
But you've been lying and I've been trying to underrate
But you'll get honey and friends with money
You'll be okay

So just go
My situation's darker than you think
There's guys in here; they're asking you to drink
But I would dedicate my life to you
Know nothing 'til the point when we'll come
In and out you go
Looking at the princess as she flows
Always stare each other in the eye
Finalizing figures 'til we die

But I would dedicate life to you
Because the chances are we're already through
And we would dedicate life to old(?)
Because the chances are we're already...

Sunken eyes
And tired is all that try
But hate I am
No one here but my man
So we've been trying and we've been lying our dreams away
But you'll get money and friends with honey and be okay

I'll lead on
You're dancing a reason on your own
There's no one here answering your phone
But live your life in on the sly
And shake it to the point where we'll come
In and out we go
Burning out the princess 'til she flows
Always stare each other in the eye
Finalizing figures 'til we fly

But we will dedicate life to you
Because the chances are we're already through
And we will dedicate life to old(?)
Because the chances are we're already...
