

Years Could Go By

The Devlins

It's okay to be afraid
Lose yourself in the waves of regret
Passing over not just yet
You are safe in the arms that won't forget

And I look in your eyes and I feel no surprise
When you tell me now you have to go away
You know years could go by
Empty days, sleepless nights

And I look in your eyes and I feel no surprise
When you tell me now you have to go away
You know years could go by
Empty days, sleepless nights

Years, years, years
