

Higher and Higher

The Dirty Heads

It burns higher and higher
They can't put out the fire
It burns higher and higher
They can't put out the fire

It burns down below
My soul
And just so you know
Well, it burns for you
And just so you know
And I hope you do

It's like everywhere I go I'm always waitin' til' I'm right back with you
And though I miss her when she's gone but when she's here I know her lovin' is true
Yeah I remember when I saw her and I knew there's nothin' I wouldn't do
Yeah, though she's nice she serves my night the way she moves like she's got nothin' to lose

She keeps me cool and makes me right the way she moves and just keeps rockin' all night
And though she moves right through that music and she sways like there was no one in sight
And when I hold her in my arms you know I never felt the feeling so right
And I just love her when she's near me 'cause she's got my fire burnin' so bright

So right, so true
So down, so cool
So nice, she moves
So right, she feels
So down, so cool, so right, so true
You know these plains they burn for you
