

Staloney

The Dirty Heads

Oh no you think that you know me
You don't know shit 'bout me homie
I'm on a cliff hanging over
I'm so Sylvester Staloney
I got a problem with people
Drinking or smoking without
Inviting me over, to me
That shits just provoking
Oh yeah I'm on a good one
I won't come down
Rolling around in my stomping grounds
Eyes closed, yeah heads bobbing
I care not, about no problem, yeah

You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing (no no)
You don't know shit about me homie
I'll tell you something (no no)
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing (no no)
You don't know shit about me homie
I'll tell you something

Hold on, wait wait, [clears throat] ok
I got bars and bars like I'm serving shots
Starving stars and forget me nots
Got trees and spliffs that I like to puff
And I French inhale when they've had enough
Got a squad of models that I split in half
Face like a 10, legs like a giraffe
In a Cadillac, gotta bend her ass
Smoking on some good Teddy Pendergrass
Really can't fuck with the main flow
Dead that shit leave your body in the mangroves
Always want pot do I look like a rainbow (nope)
Are we made from the same clothes (nope)
Can we rock at the same shows (nope)
Can I at least get a hey bro (maybe)
I'm Eddie Veder man
Can't find a better man
You are a rookie
I am a veteran
I am the efferent state
On your medicine
Your girlfriend is here
Gonna let her in

You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing (no no)
You don't know shit about me homie
I'll tell you something (no no)
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing (no no)
You don't know shit about me homie
I'll tell you something

You don't know nothing about me

You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing

You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing

You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
You don't know nothing about me
You don't know nothing
