

Cannonballs

The Dirty Youth

We could be anywhere but we found somewhere special
We could be anywhere at all
We keep the drinks flowing when the light shines on us
We ain't got no cares, we ain't got no cares at all

Standing on the edge of greatness
Let's take a leap of faith let go again

Take me back now to the perfect summer
Watching sunsets that were like no other
Making memories that we can't forget
Living our lives with no regrets
Amy didn't care when she tore her dress
'Round the campfire where we all confessed
No one ever knew what we'd do next
We were cannonballs, we were cannonballs

We found comfort in our pointless motives
Always tried to touch the sky
We keep the drinks flowing when the light shines on us 'cause
We ain't got no cares, we ain't got no cares at all

Standing on the edge of greatness
Let's take a leap of faith let go again

Take me back now to the perfect summer
Watching sunsets that were like no other
Making memories that we can't forget
Living our lives with no regrets
Amy didn't care when she tore her dress
'Round the campfire where we all confessed
No one ever knew what we'd do next
We were cannonballs, we were cannonballs

We were cannonballs (No one ever knew what we'd do next)
We were cannonballs (No one ever knew what we'd do next)
We were cannonballs (No one ever knew what we'd do next)

Take me back now to the perfect summer
Watching sunsets that were like no other
Making memories that we can't forget
Living our lives with no regrets
Amy didn't care when she tore her dress
'Round the campfire where we all confessed
No one ever knew what we'd do next
We were cannonballs, we were cannonballs
