

Crying Out For You

The Dirty Youth

Is there a curse on the things we said?
A tradic end on your horizon
So many though running through my head
I can't relate, I just despise them

I can't turn and walk away from
All your lies and petty games

What it all comes down to
It's always about you
Your ignorance is blindinnng
I can't see the truth
You tell me that you're leaving
But always look away

We're hanging on to find another reason
It's been too long to throw it all away
It's not okay cause everything we stood for
Just fades away I'm crying out for you
I'm crying out for you

I need help I can't work this out
Always heading in the wrong dieresction
Sentimental words break you down
Is it time for you redemption?

You can't turn you back on me now
All your lies are clear to see

What it all comes down to
It's always about you (always about you)
Your ignorance is blindinnng
I can't see the truth (can't see the truth)
You tell me that you're leaving
But always look away

We're hanging on to find another reason
It's been too long to throw it all away
It's not okay cause everything we stood for
Just fades away I'm crying out for you
I'm crying out for you

We're hanging on to find another reason
It's been too long to throw it all away

It's not okay
It's not okay
I'm crying out
I'm crying out

We're hanging on to find another reason
It's been too long to throw it all away
It's not okay cause everything we stood for
Just fades away I'm crying out for you
I'm crying out for you
