

It's kinda funny how you're acting
You keep loving me then letting me down
I try to find something that's stable between us
But you keep shaking the ground, shaking the ground
All I want from you
Is some spoken truth

You fooled me once, I won't be fooled again
I've seen how this one ends

Two souls that got lost in the summer
Held me close, held me like no other
Two souls that got lost in each other
I'm not your bitch but you're my ex lover
Two souls that got lost in the summer
Held me close, held me like no other
Two souls that got lost in each other
I'm not your bitch but you're my ex lover

Now you're looking at me all confused
Like you got something to say
I'm so confused why I'm still standing here
I should've run away, run away
All I want from you
Is some spoken truth

You fooled me once, I won't be fooled again
I've seen how this one ends

Two souls that got lost in the summer
Held me close, held me like no other
Two souls that got lost in each other
I'm not your bitch but you're my ex lover
(Lover, lover, lover, lover
Lover, lover, lover, lover
Lover, lover, lover, lover
Lover, lover, lover, lover)

Two souls that got lost in the summer
Held me close, held me like no other
Two souls that got lost in each other
I'm not your bitch but you're my ex lover
(Lover, lover, lover, lover, lover)
