

The One Who Loves You

The Divine Comedy

Finding the one who loves you
It doesn't come along too often
Finding the one who loves you
The one who really loves you
Who thinks so highly of you
Doesn't come round every day

And I love you, I love you, I really really love you

Finding the one who has it
Isn't as easy as it should be
Finding the one who's got it
Who is with you besotted
Is like finding the lesser spotted Dodo
In Soho - so rare

And you've got it, yeah you've got it
Yeah, you've really really got it

Finding your other half is anything but a laugh
It's hard
Finding the one who frees you
The one who really sees you
The one who'll never ever leave you
It shouldn't be this hard

But it's worth it, yeah it's worth it
Yeah, it's really really worth it

The one who loves you, The one who loves you
The one who loves you, who really really loves you
