

All Alone

The Dogma

The shadows are taking the streets
They're hiding the place where we used to meet
There's no trace, so sign of you now
They say you're gone for good
But I refuse to bow down

Lost in a dream
You close to me

But I'm all alone
Walking the streets of sorrow
Can't look back
Can't even think about tomorrow
If you're gone
There's no hope anymore
Anymore

The neon light shining too bright
Some people are crazy, they're starting to fight
It's hard to face the truth
It's so hard to face the world without you

Lost in a dream
You close to me

But I'm all alone
Walking the streets of sorrow
Can't look back
Can't even think about tomorrow
If you're gone
There's no hope anymore
Walking the streets of sorrow
Can't look back
Can't even think about tomorrow
If you're gone
There's no hope anymore
Anymore...
