

Angel in Cage

The Dogma

They gave you hell and you couldn't move your hands
They closed your wings and I saw your frozen tears

But your deadly broken heart
Found the way to start

Dance on your broken dreams
Then comes the night and you lose all your fears

But your deadly broken heart
Is rising from the dark

Girl don't shed your tears
They stole all your dreams
You can't believe
My Angel in the cage

You can't escape, they put you in their cage
Now spread your wings and tell me what you see

But your deadly broken heart
Is coming from the dark

Girl don't shed your tears
They stole all your dreams
You can't believe
My Angel in the cage
Girl don't shed your tears
Where are your dreams?
You can't believe
My Angel in the cage

Don't run away Angel show me
Your darkest pain coming from the dark

And you're bleeding from your heart
All your feelings you can't stop

Girl don't shed your tears
They stole all your dreams
You can't believe
My Angel in the cage
Girl don't shed your tears
Where are your dreams?
You can't believe
My Angel in the cage
