

Feel My Pain

The Dogma

Hey... Can you feel my pain
Can you feel the screams
Coming from the graves

Hey... That is what I say
That is what I feel
When I see your face

In my dreams I regret what I took and what I left
In my head...All your lies

How can you come back to me?
How can you feel... Feel my pain

Hey... Can you see the flames
Can you see the fire
Deep inside my eyes

Hey... Please get out of my way
Before it's much too late
Feel the power of my rage

In my dreams I regret what I took and what I left
In my head...All your lies

Your lies will turn into rage
Deep from the dark there's my flame
How can you come back to me?
How can you feel...Feel my pain

I won't believe you
I really hate you
I'll never trust in your tears
Judas won't kiss me anymore

All the shit, all the lies, all the things you've done to me
I turned into rage
Take your fears, take your shame, take all the games you played
I'll never see you again

How can you come back to me?
How can you feel...feel my pain
