

Drinking You In

The Duke Spirit

Oh no, it's sad
You hide away and you're not coming back
Nobody knows how it's gonna be
I can see a week up ahead of me

You took the long way
And it was the wrong, wrong way

Go home you have nothing else
Each night fades and you wonder yourself
When will I wake up if I'm not asleep?
I can hear a low moan inside of me

You took the long way
And it was the wrong way

What do you think when I'm not with you?
What would you do now if this got wasted?
When are you coming 'cause I'm not sleeping?
What do you now I'm not there, drinking you in?

Oh no, it's sad
You melt away
And you're not coming back
Nobody knows how it's gonna be
I can see a week up ahead of me

You took the long way
Yeah it's a wrong wrong way

Go home you have nothing else
Each night glows and you wonder yourself
When will I wake up if I'm not asleep?
I can hear low moans inside of me

You took the long way
It was the wrong, wrong way

What do you think when I'm not weeping?
What would you do now if this got wasted?
When are you coming 'cause I'm not sleeping?
What are you doing now I'm not there
And drinking you in?
