The Durutti Column

Dreams burnt out forever Dreams burnt out forever This is a party How did I get here This is a party How did I get here Always left lying slumped in a chair Wondering why the room's so bare Unable to leave Unable to leave Turn off the light Turn off the glare The girl I came with Lying drunk on the floor I don't remember her name It doesn't matter anymore Still got her shoes on She's covered in her coat Dreams burnt out forever Dreams burnt out forever Abandoned to a silence Screaming out of passion and pain The sense of my loss Again and again Abandoned to a silence Screaming out of passion and pain The sense of my loss Again and again This is a party How did I get here
