

I don't let either of you go
I'm so lost but nowhere near alone
Tied up in love and lust
Tied up into different struts
I'm the poison killing us all
You're the cushion and I'm the fall
No harm, no heat, no fear
No harm, no heat, no fear
This is getting dangerous, no
This is getting dangerous, no

Turn in what's in this hand
While we free show on them
No money, no time in the world
All the bread for ones who loved
I'm the hollow and you're the fill
I'm the pain and you're the pill
No blanket no harm no fear
No blanket no harm no fear

This is getting dangerous, no
This is getting dangerous, no
Be better off for the three of us, no
This is getting dangerous, no

Won't go, no
Won't go, no
Won't go, no, no

And it won't go (had enough of your fear)
And it won't go
And it won't go, won't go (won't go)
This is getting dangerous, no
This is getting dangerous, no
Be better off for the three of us, no
This is getting dangerous, no

(Had enough, had enough, had enough of your fear)
Won't go, won't go, no
(Had enough, had enough, had enough of your fear)
Won't go, no
It won't go, no
Won't go, no
Won't go, won't go
