

Bittersweet

The Echoing Green

remember days of color bright remember how we saw when summer set us free from the fading time of all the while and no one knows

they all pretend

bitter...
so bitter
and no one sees
the tears in your eyes
bitter...
so bittersweet

the sun was warmer
held us in it's arms
that's when we saw beauty of the pain that falls inside
