The Echoing Green

Every time I close my eyes
I hide behind the blackened lies
That follow me throughout my history
The lives I've touched, the things I've done
The things I know will never come
Get washed away in my happiness
And oh...
When you feel stranded
Don't take for granted
This thing called life
And oh...
When you feel stranded
Don't take for granted
This thing called life
Moving on was hard to do
To leave the things that I once knew
And childhood is the one thing that will come back to me
How can I sit idly by
Watching all these hours denied
My name is all I have for an offering
And oh...
When you feel stranded
Don't take for granted
This thing called life
And oh...
When you feel stranded
Don't take for granted
This thing called life
Don't take it don't feel it don't take it don't Don't feel it don't take it don't feel it don't
Don't take it don't feel it don't take it don't
Oh...
Don't take for granted
```
