

I'll Throw Myself At You

The Everly Brothers

I never told you, how I felt
I took it for granted
You knew yourself
But if you care for someone else that's new
And if you're leavin', tell me so
And I'll throw myself at you
I'd never been the kind who reveals
Just where I stand and how my heart feels
But I love you, it's time that you knew
I'd lose my pride before I'd lose you
I never told you, how I felt
I took it for granted
You knew yourself
But if you care for someone else that's new
And if you're leavin', tell me so
And I'll throw myself at you
