I'll Throw Myself At You

The Everly Brothers

I never told you, how I felt I took it for granted You knew yourself But if you care for someone else that's new And if you're leavin', tell me so And I'll throw myself at you I'd never been the kind who reveals Just where I stand and how my heart feels But I love you, it's time that you knew I'd lose my pride before I'd lose you I never told you, how I felt I took it for granted You knew yourself But if you care for someone else that's new And if you're leavin', tell me so And I'll throw myself at you
