

Under Siege

The eyes of a traitor

This time you face the wind of god on your own,
No guardian angel to protect you
Life binds your destiny still you repel
I should have known what was fucking better,
But I'm only human, I made my mistakes,
I just wish that I could take them all back,
Its hit my life like a fucking train wreck,
What can you possibly accomplish?
Its hit my life

You have no power here,
we're under siege
Your nothing you lost your way long ago
