I disappear I lost control My body's moving on it's own I watch myself Walk away A foreign spirit took my place An empty stare its eyes are dull So my essence It's riding my pulse A burst of black A breath of smoke I disappeared I lost control Ι I disappear I disappear I disappear I disappear I lost control My body's moving on it's own I watch myself Walk away A foreign spirit took my place Ι I disappear I disappear I disappear How could I resist It's all I've wanted Now I guess I've got it Why it happened, I don't know Hope this doesn't last forever I disappear I disappear I disappear I disappear
