

More To Prove

The Feelers

I found peace in this dream
I found chaos in the calm
When the world has turned to nothing
Cos the crime has just begun

I found a witness suspected
And I came in undetected
In a governmental cover up
Yeah it's what I expected

Words are not enough
I need more proof
I could see through you
I need more proof

You've done your time
But I need more proof
I need more proof
There's so much more to say
And there's so much more to prove

I saw you drowning in fears
Well a crocodile's got more tears
And I sent a smoke signal wrong
To tell you I was coming home

Now I'm breaking your fall
Cos you said I'd always call
But I was lost behind the wall
Where I think I saw it all

Words are not enough
I need more proof
I could see through you
I need more proof

You've done your time
But I need more proof
There's so much more to say
And there's so much more to prove

I saw a passion in crime
Not given a fair trial
And I pulled the thorn from your side
I saw the smile in your killer eyes
I saw a city come alive
As a substitute for crime
And I was caught between the lines
In the silence no one finds

And there's more to say
And there's more to prove
And there's more to find out
Behind the truth

And the more you see
Then the less you loose

And there's more to say
