

No-One's Listening

The Feelers

Hotter than a desert more subtle than a right hook, yeah we've got something to say Better than a statement more meaning than a movement,
yeah we've got something to say

No-one's listening anyway, but I hear you

Not enough protests there's too many riots,
yeah we've got something to say It's bigger than a statement
more meaning than a movement,
yeah we've got something to say

Hold it in, dont let it out, if you've got something to say Don't hold it in just let it out,
if you've got something to say

No-one's listening anyway,
but I hear you
