

A Lost Home

The Feeling

You were lucky that we got this far
And we're lucky to avoid the scars
And I'm glad we didn't go to war
Sure, you would've given me what-for

Found a house
Lost a home
Made a choice
But you should know

I won't go back
I won't go back
I won't go back
Please, don't look at me like that
I won't go back
I won't go back
I won't go back
Please, don't look at me like that
I'm alright, I'm not alone
I'm just longing for a lost home

Well, I'm sorry if I made it though
All the grass just wasn't being enough
And I'm sorry if I
Hope it's greener on the other side

Play the game
In the dark
Did the deed
Broke a heart

I won't go back
I won't go back
I won't go back
Please, don't look at me like that
I won't go back
I won't go back
I won't go back
Please, don't look at me like that

I should've known it from the start
That you were gonna play it
From the crackpot of your heart

I won't go back

I won't go back
I won't go back
I won't go back
Please, don't look at me like that
I'm alright, I'm not alone
I'm just longing for a lost home
