The Feeling

Half past eight and you're late Coffee's cold, what a state They've dragged you down

Fate's got you scraped Work to death Can't you turn them words around?

Is it really what you want? Is it really what you need? Is it really what you choose, my dear?

Is it really what you want?
Is it really what you need?
Is it really what you choose, oh, oh?

The world is in your hands The world is in your hands The world belongs to those of us Who still believe we can

And it matters what you do Though they all look down on you 'Cos it's better that you've come from nothing Than nothing comes from you

Come with us, come with us Come with us, come with us Join with us, join with us Join with us, join with us

Don't make a sound Count your pennies Count your pounds There's no way out

What will you do When all love gives up on you? Can't turn around

Is it really what you want?
Is it really what you need?
Is it really what you choose, oh, oh?

The world is in your hands The world is in your hands The world belongs to those of us Who still believe we can

And it matters what you do Though they all look down on you 'Cos it's better that you've come from nothing Than nothing comes from you

Come with us, come with us Come with us, come with us Join with us, join with us We've got a place and it's here for you For all we ever wanted was a different view I never knew somebody live with so much pain If you open your heart, come with us and we'll take you away

Come with us, come with us Come with us, come with us Join with us, join with us Join with us, join with us

Come with us, come with us Come with us, come with us Join with us, join with us Join with
