

Roger And Out

The Fixx

No more Roger, Roger and out
No more Roger, Roger about
No more Roger, Roger and out

He left his house
Left his car
Left his job
Let his demons out

No more Roger, Roger and out
No more Roger, Roger about
No more Roger, Roger and out
No more Roger

He made his mark
Left his stain
Changed his future
Killed his pain

What was he thinking?
What was he searching for?
Where is he heading?
"Open sesame," the door

Had chains replaced his regal wings?
On the rock, the siren sings
Raised his glass, "let the games begin"
Stories on the changing wind

So why is he lurking?
Why is he on the floor?
Where is he heading?
"Open sesame," the door

Reminded of his inner sins
Does God exist in a Hollywood ending?
Lose the plot, lose everything
Get the hell out before the sky falls in

Oh, no more Roger, Roger and out
No more Roger, Roger about
No more Roger, Roger and out
No more Roger, Roger about

No more distant persistent
No more inconsistent
No more, more
