

The moment is pure
Bathed in bliss
A quivering wish
A glance to the sky
Repaint it anything but blue
One can never be sure
How much love you'll receive, just keep pumping it out
It could open a door
Kind of life expansive

Hey Shaman, I'm sure
That the road unwinds given time
If not, what's it all for?

When an innocent eye
Recoils in doubt from a troubled life
And becomes so unsure
Self-hate becomes automatic
All the problems in store
Feel like the weight of the world
Only you could break through
Smash the mold and realize that

Hey Shaman, I'm sure
That the road unwinds given time
If not, what's it all for?

Sometimes you've got to step forth
Your soldier of light, your armor is love
And you've got to step forth, forth

You know you played your part in
But did you put your heart in?

Shaman, I'm sure
That the road unwinds given time
If not, what's it all for?

Sometimes you've got to step forth
Your soldier of light, your armor is love
And you've got to step forth, forth

Shaman, I'm sure
Shaman, I'm sure
If not, what's it all for?
Shaman, I'm sure
Shaman, I'm sure
Shaman, I'm sure
