

Chameleon Skin

The Flatliners

You're so unattainable, you know.
We'll float high and fall below as ghosts.

Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been.

And so time just seems to move slow.
So go, go ahead, abuse control.

Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been.
Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been,
Who I've been.

Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been.
Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been,
Who I've been, who I've been.

Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been.
Dress me up in your chameleon skin.
I don't wanna remember who I've been.
