

Hang My Head

The Flatliners

Yeah, I'll hang my head
For this legacy of embarrassment
Yeah, I usually sing along
But tonight I'll bite my tongue clean off

Cause all my friends are nervous wrecks
Don't have the time to take a breath
Yeah all my friends are nervous wrecks
Pre-occupied with looming death
Certificates and whatever is trending next

Yeah, accused of being gone a long while Still, you know my phone's been on
You're the one losing sleep
Trying to word your bio line eloquently

See? All my friends are nervous wrecks
Don't have the time to take a breath
Yeah all my friends are nervous wrecks
Pre-occupied with looming death
Certificates and reading too much into this

Cause all my friends are nervous wrecks
Yeah all my friends are nervous wrecks

Yeah, I'll hang my head
For this legacy of embarrassment
Yeah, I usually sing along
But tonight I'll bite my tongue
