

Garden of Dreams - There's No Such Night

The Flower Kings

When the prince of darkness enters your room when you're lost in the darkest of cocoon, remember.....
There is no such thing as blank & total darkness in your garden
There's no such night that's cold & solely starless Look inside, you'll find it glowing in the dark Seed of life, the mouth of evil couldn't chew that spark tonight,
couldn't chew that spark tonight...

When black birds darken the skies, of thunder the Black Moon cover the sun, I wonder There's no such way that they can crucify the words of wonder
There is no such gravity that holds the stone, the stone of ages
Listen well, you'll find it singing in the night from the other side, just couldn't get it right just couldn't get it right...
