

Go West Judas

The Flower Kings

You left with a promise and sealed with a kiss remember beginnings, it was nothing like this Like brothers in arms, now worlds apart you follow the rainbow, I follow the heart

Now, I'm not perfect, I'm no Saint but you can't fool me, so wipe off that paint You may think that I'm your stepping stone but in this game you're all alone

Go west Judas, see what you'll find now, we all know what's on your mind Just got and get it, go on collect and burn your bridges, what did you expect

You're far from grace & you're far from home
You think you're safe in that pleasure dome Now, racing the temple of the snakes soon out of control, start pulling the brakes

There's no way you can become clean you're knee deep in the mean machine In blood you signed the dotted line so it's no surprise the sun won't shine

Go west Judas, see what you'll find go on "Sieg Heil" the dollar sign You black heart of the human trade now wizard of the everglades
