

Underdog

The Flower Kings

10,000 riding the sky, big league passing by Set to defend our homes, certain to turn the stone Well, to define our enemy, it's easy now, knowing how They are all solid but no name, sign says blank, so we don't care

Feeding the fire fields, marching into unreal
Knowing it's them or us, fall into the mortal buzz Slowly become the devil dog, the grinnin' jaw, the cat's claw
Over and over justify, the mindless crimes, the hollow times

See what it takes to become what is truly yours
Don't let it break you and take you away from us
This road will lead you to nothing but fearful eyes
This war means freedom, but freedom means sacrifice

Slowly become the devil dog, the grinnin' jaw, the cat's
claw
Over and over justify, the mindless crimes, the hollow
times

See what it takes to become what is truly yours
Don't let it break you and take you away from us
This road will lead you to nothing but fearful eyes
This war means freedom, but we all must pay the price
