There must be someone Does anyone care? Resistance is futile I'm beoming a machine of the future One leader - one goal Hooked to cables and hose Programmed with instructions to kill Hydraulic blood and synthetic eyes If assignment goes as planned An upgrade will be done The files say Armed with electricity You know when I'm around The glitches will tell I don't show up alone No minds - just the will to kill No regrets bathe in blood that's spilled One mind - taking care of the plan

One voice - telling us which are to be scanned Exterminating every humand life Taking control of space and time Pray for death - it will come soon We breathe no air - advance is mine [Lead: Persson] I'm becoming a machine of the future One leader - one goal Hooked to cables and hose Programmed with instructions to kill Hydraulic blood and syntethic eyes We will just be one One kind, one machine One leader, one goal We will grow the flourish Become the intelligent race Control every boundry Infiltrate your world Soon we will have your mind No minds - just the will to kill No regrets - bathe in blood that`s spilled
