

Mr. Personality Man

The Foundations

Mr. Personality Man
He's got the girls right there in the palm of his hand
Mr. Personality Man
He's got them all right there when he claps his hands
Mr. Personality Man

You see the girls all run to his side
When he hits the town (you better watch him)
He only smiles and they all come running
From miles around (you better watch him)

Get down on your knees and pray
That he won't try, to steal your baby away

Mr. Personality Man

When he's in sight hold your baby tight
'Cause he's a danger man (you better watch him)
He'll catch her eyes then you'll say goodbye
You'll be a stranger man (you better watch him)

Get down on your knees and pray
That he won't try, to steal your baby away
