

That Same Old Feeling

The Foundations

Baby, alright

I still get that same old feeling
Tearing at this heart of mine
Telling me that maybe I'm
Not really over you

I still get that same old yearning
Turning my heart inside out
Now there can't be any doubt
I'm still not over you (over you)

I thought that I'd forget you
Somehow get along
Each time I see your face
I know inside that I was wrong

I still get that same old feeling
Tearing at this heart of mine
Telling me that maybe I'm
Not really over you

(Here comes that boy with his heart on the ground)
(He's got no-one now that girl let him down)

I thought that I'd forget you
Somehow get along
Each time I see your face
I know inside that I was wrong

I still get that same old feeling
Tearing at this heart of mine
Telling me that maybe I'm
Not really over you

I still get that same old yearning
Turning my heart inside out
Now there can't be any doubt
I'm still not over you (over you)
