

An Angel Cried

The Four Seasons

The day you left me
An angel cried

The sun had faded and died
No one knew the reason why but me
That cloudy day
You went away

The clouds had filled up the skies
Like the tears that filled my eyes, lonely me
That cloudy day
You went away

Then rain drops fell (rain drops fell)
Down from the sky
The day you left me
An angel cried
An angel cried

(My God, an angel knows)
Yes, she knows
Yes, she knows you hurt me so
She knows the reason why

The raindrops fell (rain drops fell)
Down from the sky
The day you left me
An angel cried
An angel cried
Woah-oh, she cried

That cloudy day (that cloudy day)
You went away (you went away)
An angel cried
She cried
