

Before the Storm

The Frozen Autumn

I waited all my life
To ride the western sky
As the storm clouds thicken
East of the Sun
Screaming through the soil.

I don't wanna see her die
I just wanna walk by her side
Arm in arm we're gonna fly
Through blazing summer rain.

The world is falling apart
It cuts me deep inside
As the storm bells shatter
As she spits as the sky
Deafening the Earth.

I don't wanna see her die
I just wanna walk by her side.
Arm in arm we're gonna fly
Through blazing summer rain.

And the solitude is killing my heart
So I need to feel that I'm still alive.

I don't wanna see her die
I just wanna walk by her side
Arm in arm we're gonna fly
Through blazing summer rain.

Can You see the rain?
Here it comes again
Oh Lord I love her.

I can feel the rain
Here it comes again
I'm losing control and she's pulling me in.

Come inside the rain
Here it comes again
Oh Lord I love her.
