

When you die
Your life flashes
When life turns into death
It's explosive
When love becomes hate
When things turn into opposite
There are sparks of light Magical and electrifying

Everyone senses something
Some energy
Some spirit

I've seen the light in your eyes
in your eyes
in your eyes

lights In the nighth
in your eyes
in your eyes
in your eyes

Some sort of illumination
But I see it
I see it
I've seen bodies
Shining like stars

I've seen the light in your eyes
