

Polar Plateau

The Frozen Autumn

What if the air suddenly solidifies?
Nothing to regret
Nothing more to plan

Alabaster limbs can outlive
The nitrogen dew
So touch me and I'll
Be the last thing you touch

Marble limbs hold sway on the
Polar Plateau
Where I detest you all
I wish you could disappear

Bury me in Sienna
Bury me in blue sand
Where useless things are thrown away and Forgotten

Bury me in Sienna
Bury me in blue sand
On the Polar Plateau
My eyes turn electric blue

What if the air suddenly solidifies?
Evidence
Becomes eternal

Troughs and peaks
Streamlining limbs
To fit a perfect guise
A flawless disguise

Humdrum action
Blindfold reaction
Will that soften your heart?
Will that soften your heart?

Bury me in Sienna
Bury me in blue sand
On the Polar Plateau
Please leave me alone

Bury me in Sienna
Bury me in blue sand
For I detest you all
I detest you all

Bury me in Sienna
Bury me in blue sand
For I detest you all
I detest you all
