

Dark Horses

The Getaway Plan

At the bottom of the sea
You can find me drinking deep
There's a hole in my ship that you'll never fill
And I'll wait 'cause I've got time to kill

Now I am happy to admit
I should be ready to exist.
But there's pain in my heart that you'll never know.
So I'll wade here in the afterglow

In the night I see dark horses come alive
But we'll never fall in line with a broken heart
In my head I see stars
I'm a dead man walking but there's no end in sight
In the night I see dark horses come alive
Now, let's ride into the next life

I must confess
That I expected nothing less
I swear I tried my very best but you just left me with a cross to bear.

In the night I see dark horses come alive
But we'll never fall in line with a broken heart
In my head I see stars
I'm a dead man walking but there's no end in sight
In the night I see dark horses come alive
Now, let's ride into the next life
