

I Pray

The Good Natured

[Verse 1]

Naive I'll make you cry
I'll make you cry until it hurts
I'll watch you weep until you can't carry yourself
"Quiet" you command
You feel the cuffs upon your wrists
Now agony and anger will make a silent kiss

[Chorus]

I pray one day
You might apologize for
Making me feel guilty and your destructive mind
A simple sorry would suffice

[Verse 2]

Guilty he takes the blame
And now I live in self-disgrace
One cut is just enough for you to Put me in my place
So we watch him carve
All the sins into his arms
Justifying actions with good looks and charm

[Chorus]

I pray one day
You might apologize for
Making me feel guilty and your destructive mind
A simple sorry would suffice

[Verse 3]

So she's lying in your bed
And i knew it in the night
A simple sorry would suffice
Only a fool would justify

[Chorus]

I pray one day
You might apologize for
Making me feel guilty and your destructive mind
A simple sorry would suffice
