

Baby, You Do It So Well

The Grass Roots

It's like I told you many times before
Girl's gotta do certain things and more

Girl's supposed to keep a hold on her man
Gotta do what she can
Oh, yeah, baby, whoa baby

You do it so well
You do it so fine, child
You do it so well, baby
You do it so fine

Go ask any man in the neighborhood
What a girl's gotta do to make him feel good

He'll say (yeah, yeah) she's gotta kiss him
(Yeah, yeah) 'til he can't see straight
(Yeah, yeah) she's gotta love him
(Yeah, yeah) all night and day!
Baby (woo), wow, baby!

You do it so well (you do it so well, baby)
You do it so fine (you do it so well, baby)
You do it so well (you do it so well, baby)
You do it so fine little girl (you do it so well, baby)

Oh, yeah (you do it so well, baby)
Oh, yeah (you do it so well, baby)

I'd known alotta girls before
But you put them all to shame
The way you love me; love me some more
I get the shivers when you call my name
Yeah, yeah; yeah, yeah

You know a girl's gotta be more than friend
Gotta be there on they day that it ends

(Yeah, yeah) stand by him
(Yeah, yeah) right at home
(Yeah, yeah) make him know
(Yeah, yeah) that he belongs

She'll say, oh she'll say
You do it so well (you do it so well, baby)
You do it so fine, child (you do it so well, baby)
Oh, yeah (you do it so well, baby)
You do it so well (you do it so well, baby)
Oh, yeah (you do it so well, baby)
Oh, yeah (you do it so well, baby)
Oh, baby (you do it so well, baby)
Oh (you do it so well, baby)...
