

Two Kinds Of Right

The Grates

I stood up, I stood tall,
I'm paper thin but I'll cheer you on,
No harm defending no, no harm defending.
I reached out from the crowd, I shout out yeah I shout out loud
No harm pretending, no, but I'm not pretending.

Rain laid frost bitten heels, I've seen before but never seen s o clear,
All understanding, all understanding.
Pick me up tooth by tooth,
You'll know it's me when you count one short,
You can be so sure, yeah, as salt on the sea shore,

Cos I'm, two kinds of right, I surrender and fight,
Yeah I'm two kinds of right.
And it's eas y to see, when it's better than me,
And you're two kinds of right.

Some things are better when broken, did I tell you, that you're my best friend,
I wanna show you what you've never been shown.
Everyone's saving love for Sundays,
Really I hope you earn it one day, everyone's coming back for s omething,
Everyone's coming back for nothing.

Under tables under chairs, I've got two legs I can take you the re.

Cos I'm, two kinds of right, I surrender and fight,
Yeah I'm two kinds of right.
And it's so easy to see, when it's bigger than me,
And you're two kinds of right.
